Annual Dedication

The Seniors of '55 dedicate this annual to Miss Kittleson who has devoted so many years of her life to our school.

PORTALS of DESTINY

Thus, our labors being over, the time has come for us to depart from the Portals of Destiny. We shall always remember our high school and the wonderful times we have had.

Seniors of 1955

Class History

Friends, parents, and classmates! Lend us your ears. We come to bury our senior year, not to praise it. The evil of men live after them, the good is often buried with their bones as it will be with our class.

We shall give you the facts--just the facts.

At 8:45 one morning in September the year of nineteen hundred and forty-three, Miss Harnet was to have the honor of introducing the senior class to their first real adventure. School! She was thrilled when she saw the shining faces of Myrna Slaybaugh and Margaret Patterson. Even Kenny Nichol couldn't dampen her spirits. Bravely she faced the coming year with Arlen Pederson, Gordon and Roger Hall, to say nothing of Timmy Bond. These students (?) went through many ingenious devices before passing the first grade. Their favorite was something new called the spit wad.

As the second grade increased in knowledge, it also increased in size under the direction of Miss Olson. The newest additions to the crowd being Keith McLean, Janis Gonitizke, and Duane Jaques. Along with Halloween and funny faces came Audrey Jones to make the class complete. Their specialty that year was nature study, though no one remembers what nature of study it was.

In the third grade zeros became as common as colds and the cloakroom was usually used for punishment for giggling girls. Miss Campbell was the teacher for that year and the lesson became discipline, which was promptly forgotten when escaping school that year. Lee Weber made his entrance into our class quite silently so we weren't sure whether or not he was in our class.

Fourth grade started with song and ended the same. We learned all about Mrs. Mastvelton's cat who could run on piano keys. She even tried to straighten out all the crooked backs we had, but from the looks of things she had a time to straighten out the crooked minds. Luther Larson brought fun and a small bit of common sense to the class and his "shickens" and "shairs" were overlooked. Another addition to our unseemly little crowd was Fern Reider.

Miss Haakenstad pulled us through our fifth grade "yeography" and the monotony of this year was broken by Elaine Lindstrom who was part of our class for one semester. She couldn't stand us any longer.

We approached the sixth grade with much fear. Our first man teacher Mr. Bjornson was to put us through that year. We were honored by the presense of Rodney Wetzell, Howard Beyer, and Phyllis Lemieux. Mr. Bjornson collected many balls, marbles, and so on that year. We think he probably mad a fortune selling them during the summer. He never did get Luther's "copenhagen" because he didn't bring it to school.

Arlen Pederson made another entrance into the senior class when we arrived at the seventh grade. This year is crowded with memories of Mr. Sinclair and his famous and oft' repeated words which are still used by various teachers. In his booming voice he would say, "The Bell Has Rung!" He was very convincing too. No teacher has quite attained the effect that his words did.

Eighth grade, spit wads, and trips to the study hall remain fixed in the seniors memories. We weren't quite old enough to join the high school parties and not quite young enough to go to the central school parties. What a disillusionment! The bright futures of the better scholars were dulled by the new and brighter scholar, Gwen Lee. Lively Viola Hoff kept the students with vivid imaginations laughing most of the time. Besides, she could yodel better than most of us.

Green, green, green, freshmen is what Botno Hi beheld as Virginia Brandvold, Martin Boguslawski, Orbin Brandvold, Glenn Brandjord, and Lona Fugere entered. Mr. Bangs even smiled bravely when John Johnson, Ramon Johnson, Wendell Lillistrand, and Virgil Mortenson with hair all slicked up said, "Hi 'ya R.W." This was the year we should have had the cloakroom for giggling girls as Kerin Oelshlager was so kind to join us. The Thorsgaard's, Harvey and Allan continued to aid us in making life miserable for our teachers, while Jean Ralston, Doris Rassmussen, Wayne Vedquam, and Marvin Brandvold completed the list of "Green" freshmen.

Ancient history and biology were made much more interesting with the help of Omar Hammes, Orlando Shefflo, and Allen Lundy. Wayne Wall honored us with his presence by coming clear from Detroit to join us while Shirley Martel and Lyla Bergeron came from Willow City. Not too big a difference between Detroit and Willow City, I'd say. We learnt this in "yeography."

Billy Siercks started the junior year off with a bang. Even Mr. Borchart's spirit was shaken when he was that bright and shining face. Did we say bright? This was the year of the secrets of whispers but it did leak out that it was the best prom ever.

Along with PDP and tickets for speeding came LeRoy Vannett and Lowell Fafnis. They added so much to our mixed up bunch. Just look where we are now.

SENIORS OF '55

TOUGH AS NAILS, HARD AS BRICKS SR. CLASS OF '56

Wow! what a year we've had. We're just bubbling with things to tell you. Let's start with Chemistry.

We recommend that everyone take Chemistry. It's lots of fun and easy. Did we say easy? Well it's fun and educational. We've felt very proud that everyone in school complemented us on our H_2S gas (rotten egg gas). Many juniors felt that Bookkeeping would be a bigger help to them than Chemistry. I wonder if it was!

We surely can't forget the top honors given to us in History and English class. Honors were for bluffing through our tests and were given by Miss Stewart and Mrs. Weeks respectively.

Poor Mr. Fedje, what a year he's had. We seem to always hear him saying, "All those with no errors raise your hand." We don't get much hand raising exercise. Oh well, give us time, we're improving.

Of course, studying wasn't all we did this year. We put on a very good play, "Uncle Fred Flits By." We had a very nice Prom and banquet too.

Our class is very well represented in Band, Concert Choir, and athletics! Alvin, Darrell and Arlan made first string in basketball and Jerry and Alvin are our next year football captains.

Barbara was chosen for cheerleading and Harriet and Betty as Queen candidates.

We'd better get busy, see you next year!

Listen my friends and you shall hear of the happiness of the Sophomore year.

It's 19 hundred and 55 and hardly a teacher scarcely survives (well maybe a few).

Mrs. Weeks always has exciting English classes especially with her little helpers David W. and Ronnie L. We even have to admit that Julius Ceasar wasn't so bad--Et tu Brutus.

Borchert sure has tried his hardest to teach us Biology, especially a certain few. Do you know that vegetable is a fruit?????

It's the case that in history we learned something, but -- what was it Mrs. Berg???

The Home Ec. girls have been quite busy feeding the teachers and the school board members. We even heard they enjoyed it!!! Or was it just a rumor??

We haven't heard much about the Ag. boys, but they're not as good as you think!

Completing a very active year, 1954-55, fifteen FFAer's and two Chapter Mothers attended the State FFA convention at Fargo, April 15 and 16, 1955. The Bottineau chapter was not only represented by this delegation, but also by the four girls who received State Degrees - Lona Jean Fugere, Margaret Patterson, Janis Gonitzke, and Phyllis Lemieux-and by being recognized as an Honor Roll Chapter.

Last fall, October 29, 1954, thirty girls attended the District FFA Rally at Rolla. There Ardelle Grimestad was elected District Treasurer. Speaking of offices above the chapter level, Jean Ralston, 1954-55 State Secretary has made some outstanding contributions to the organization.

The officers that guided this organization on its 1954-55 journey were:

President.....	Jean Ralston
Vice President.....	Margaret Patterson
Secretary.....	Lorna Hall
Treasurer.....	Janis Gonitzke
Parliamentarian.....	Jo Ann Brandjord
Degree Chairman.....	Ardelle Grimestad
Projects Chairman.....	Donna Davidson
Music Chairman.....	Carol Hammes
Historian.....	Patty Thompson
Reporter.....	Helen Brandvold
Recreation Chairman.....	Sharon Christenson

The projects undertaken by the Bottineau Chapter this past year were numerous. Among them were such new ventures as a one-act play and Pie Social, FFA Parent-Daughter Banquet

The projects undertaken by the Bottineau Chapter this past year were numerous. Among them were such new ventures as a One - act Play and Pie Social, FFA Parent - Daughter Banquet, Family Relations Skit "Joanie Nodak Chooses Her Career," and an FFA - FFA Panel and Skating Party. Besides this, there were such annual events as the FFA Game Party and the Mothers' Tea at which twelve Chapter and seven Junior Degrees were awarded.

Yew, the forty FFAer's at BHS feel that this has been a good year, but next year they (minus the seven seniors and plus a few Freshmen) will be really working for the award that goes to the outstanding chapter in the state. They are sure that 1955 - '56 will be a repetition of 1953 - '54 when the award was theirs.

Bottineau Hi FFAer's attained new heights in '54-'55. Under the capable leadership of their officers:

President-----Glenn Brandjord
 Vice President-----Luther Larson
 Secretary-----Wayne Vedquam
 Treasurer-----Allan Fraser
 Reporter-----Orbin Brandvold
 Sentinel-----Roger Hall
 Parliamentarian-----Marvin Brandvold

and their advisers: Mr. Holwell and Mr. Vande Walle, the Bottineau Chapter received a gold award at the District Parliamentary Procedure Meeting and the state and regional award in Farm Safety.

A number of conventions and other meetings were attended by members of the chapter. Among them were the Jamestown Dairy Show, the Valley City Winter Show, the State Convention, and The National Convention, which was attended by Ken Gorder, Bob Vinje, Glenn Brandjord, Billy Siercks, Harvey Thorsgaard, and Mr. Vande Walle.

Of the 85 Bottineau FFA members, several received individual distinctions. These were: bronze awards for livestock judging at the State Convention and at the Valley City Winter Show and a silver award for grain judging at the Valley City Winter Show. In addition, Lennard Neubauer received a silver award for grain judging at the Winter Show, Clarence Lee obtained a gold award in Farm Skills, and Glenn Brandjord placed second in the state in Farm Mechanics.

The Grain Sanitation Program was the new project undertaken by the ever-progressive FFA in 1954-'55.

Bandbox Banalities

Heavily outnumbered, the small inority of seniors (8) in B. H. S. Concert Band survived a number of attacks by the other 52 band members and remained in condition to participate in the many activities of the organization.

First and foremost, the band, playing "Finale" from "New World Symphony" by Dvorak and Brahm's "Hymn of Freedom," received favorable criticism at the County Festival and a "highly superior" rating at the District Music Contest in Minot. The members of the band worked with the choir in presenting the Christmas Story, gave a concert after the instrumental clinic under the baton of Mr. Hahn, favored the public with a Spring Concert, appeared at all the basketball and football games, including tournaments, the Dedication of the Armory, and High School Graduation.

Also the marching band, under the leadership of Gordon Jones, drum major, executed various steps and formations at the BHS, NDSF, and MSTC Homecoming parades, and the Annual Band Festival in Minot.

Soloists and small groups activities included a Student Recital, the District Music Contest at Minot, and the State Contest at Devil's Lake. Ratings at the District were: Audrey Jones-highly superior, Rodney Rothlisberger-superior, Carole Nelson-superior, Jean Jacobson-superior, Dennis Opland-superior, Shirley Haakenstad-excellent, Duane Jostad-excellent, Ardelle Grimestad-excellent, woodwind quartet-highly superior, and brass quintet-excellent. Word from Devil's Lake states that Audrey Jones received superior, woodwind quartet attained a superior rating and Rodney Rothlisberger achieved a highly superior.

Guiding lights of the organizations were Mr. Sundahl, director; Gordon Jones, President; Virginia Brandvold, Vice President; Audrey Jones, Secretary; Harriet Berg, Treasurer; Carl Freeman, student manager; Barbara Nelson, Margaret Rosberg, Shirley Haakenstad, and Gayle Frykman librarians. Under their guidance, the B. H. S. Band has left a trail of smoke in '55.

Second Choir

CHOIR QUIPS

"O Bone Jesu" by Palestrina and F. Melius Christianson's arrangement of "Lost in the Night" are two compositions which the B. H. S. Choir of '54-'55, cannot well forget. It was by singing these that the group received favorable criticism at the County Music Festival and a "Superior" rating at the District Festival in Minot.

The sixty-five members of the choir including the twenty seniors, fully equipped with robes (well most of them were) and full, rich voices journeyed through the year under the guidance of Mr. Sundahl and the officers:

President	Virginia Brandvold
Vice President	Luther Larson
Secretary	Barbara Nelson
Treasurer	Kenneth Lillestrand
Librarians	Lyla Mae Bergeron
	Harriet Berg

Numerous appearances made by the choir included the Christmas story presented jointly with the band, a concert after the vocal clinic which Mr. Strohm conducted, a spring concert, a choir trip, high school graduation, and high school Baccalaureate. In addition to these appearances, smaller groups have been active. Four vocal soloists were included in a Student Recital and three participated in the District Music Contest at Minot. Ratings in the contest were: Lyla Mae Bergeron, "Superior", Kay Shank received an "Excellent" rating at the State Contest at Devil's Lake, and LeRoy's rating there was "Superior". Also there was a boy's quartet consisting of Dennis Opland, Gordon Jones, Duane Jostad, and LeRoy Vannett.

To echo one choir member's comment, "In this year of '55 we've been as busy as bees in a hive!" How true! How true!
